

Southern Europe Law and Economics Webinar

French Association of Law and Economics

Italian Society of Law and Economics

Spanish Association of Law and Economics

June 1, 2023

Zoom Platform

Program

9.00-9.30 – Presentation of the national associations of law and economics

Sophie Harnay, Université Paris Nanterre

Law and Economics in France

Giuseppe Bellantuono, Università di Trento

Law and Economics in Italy

Gabriel Doménech Pascual, Universidad de Valencia

Law and Economics in Spain

9.30-10.00:

Samuel Ferey, Université de Lorraine & BETA,

Does Economics Matter? The Role and Importance of Economic Arguments Before the French Constitutional Court

10.00-10.30:

Yves Oytana (Université Franche-Comté & CRESE) and Marie Obidzinski (Université Paris Assas & CRED)

Algorithmic Prediction, Human Decision and Liability Rules

10.30-11.00:

Antonio Davola, University of Bari

Consumer Protection, Relational Decision-Making, and the Regulation of Price Personalization in the Digital Market

11.00-11.15

Short break

11.15-11.45:

Angelo Castaldo, University of Rome La Sapienza

On the Existence and Shape of an Environmental Crime Kuznets Curve: A Case Study of Italian Provinces

11.45-12.15:

Mireia Artigot, University Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona,

Personalized Consumer Contracts and the Limits of Contract Law

12.15-12.45:

Juan Mora-Sanguinetti, Bank of Spain

Quantifying regulation in two areas: gender equality policies and environmental policies. Do they have tangible economic effects?

12.45-13.00

Q&A – General Discussion

Scientific coordinators: Giuseppe Bellantuono, Sophie Harnay and Gabriel Doménech Pascual

Please write to giuseppe.bellantuono@unitn.it for Zoom credentials